

Metastatic Bone Clinical Leaders Meeting

Thursday 26th June 2025, The Alex Hotel, Dublin

09:00 - 09:50	Registration, Coffee and Refreshments
09:50 - 10:00	Welcome and introduction Prof Alan Molloy, National Orthopaedic Hospital Cappagh
10:00 - 10:15	MBD Evidence Summary 2024-5 Mr Jonathan MacDonald, Musgrave Park Hospital, Belfast
10:15 - 10:30	Myeloma for orthopaedic surgeons - the differences to MBD Dr Stella Bowcock, Consultant Haematologist, Kings College London
10:30 - 10:45	The orthopaedic view on myeloma Prof Rob Ashford, University Hospitals Leicester
10:45 - 11:00	How I manage renal cell metastases Miss Martina Faimali, Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital
11:00 - 11:10	The ROH experience with a new custom implant provider Mr Scott Evans, Royal Orthopaedic Hospital Session sponsored by Onkos Surgical	Sponsored by:
11:10 - 11:40	Morning Refreshments
11:40 - 11:55	Frailty in Metastatic Bone Disease Prof Rob Ashford, University Hospitals Leicester
11:55 - 12:10	Complexity classification in Metastatic Bone Disease Mr Nomaan Sheikh, University Hospitals of Northampton
12:10 - 12:25	Malignancy of Unknown Origin / Carcinoma of unknown primary Mr Nicholas Eastley, Leicester Orthopaedics
12:25 - 12:40	Developing consensus in MBD Dr Rachel Baumber, Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital
12:40 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 13:50	How I prefer to do Proximal femoral replacement, tips and tricks for function Speaker to be announced Session sponsored by Adler Ortho & Fannin	Sponsored by:
13:50 - 15:10	Metastatic Bone Disease free paper session Chaired by: Mr Sam McMahon, Miss Harriet Branford-White
13.50	Periprosthetic fractures around megaprotheses of the knee for oncological indications: A comparison of treatment modalities - Jonathan Stevenson, Royal Orthopaedic Hospital Birmingham

13.58	Metastatic bone disease in a regional centre: 10-year analysis of surgical procedures, complications and survival outcomes - Eric Anyanwu, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
14.06	Multidisciplinary Management of Metastatic Bone Disease- a Survey of Current Practice in the UK - Jonathan Sterne, Musgrave Park Hospital, Belfast
14.14	The experiences of a metastatic bone disease fellow in a UK sarcoma centre - Alastair Beaven, The Royal Orthopaedic Hospital Birmingham
14.22	A Dedicated Metastatic Bone Disease Clinic Reduces Mortality in Post-Surgical Patients - Luke Ashby, Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital
14.30	Surgery for metastatic cancer: Are we reducing life expectancy by improving quality? - James Shelton, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals
14.38	“Intralesional Arthroplasty” in Patients with Metastatic Bone Disease – A Boon in the Surgical Multimodal Management of Cancer Patients - Vishesh Khanna, Kevin Syam, Birender Kapoor, Liverpool University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
14.46	A description of urgent metastatic bone disease referrals to a UK specialist sarcoma centre - Alastair Beaven, ROH Birmingham
14.54	What is a wide margin when resecting renal-cell bone metastases? Jonathan Stevenson, Royal Orthopaedic Hospital Birmingham
15.02	Results of surgical stabilisation in patients with metastatic bone disease – 12 year experience from a regional metastatic unit - Kevin Syam, Vishesh Khanna, Liverpool University Hospital Foundation Trust
15:10 - 15:25	10 year results of management of Metastatic Bone Disease from a regional metastatic unit - Liverpool model Birender Kapoor, Royal Liverpool and Broadgreen University Hospitals NHS Trust
15:25 - 15:45	Afternoon refreshments
15:45 - 15:55	Management of Metastatic Disease in UK. Whither are we bound? Mr. Birender Kapoor, Royal Liverpool and Broadgreen University Hospitals NHS Trust Session sponsored by: implantcast
15:55 - 16:05	PORTRAIT Trial Mr Jonathan Stevenson, Royal Orthopaedic Hospital Birmingham
16:05 - 16:20	Controversies in Metastatic Bone Disease Miss Louise McCullough, NHS Grampian and Albyn Hospital
16:20 - 17:10	The Great Debate: Oligometastatic disease, Fix or Replace? Mr Rob Pollock, Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital - Advocating for endoprosthetic replacement Mr Max Vaynrub, Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center - Advocating for osteosynthesis
17:10	Closing Remarks

Sponsored by:

